Home Library Direct

Home Library Direct can help you if you have difficulty accessing your library.

This may be due to age, illness, disability, caring responsibilities or other reasons.

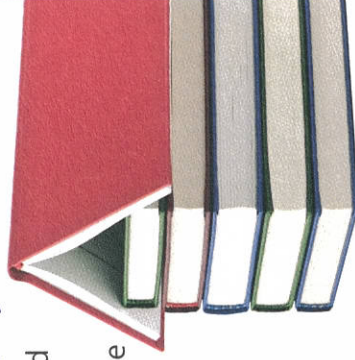

We are able to offer:

- A friendly, free service.
- Items selected, delivered and returned by helpful volunteers.
- A wide range of reading material including fiction, large print, biography, audiobooks and much more.
- Help to download eBooks and eAudiobooks from home
- Reservations for specific titles from home
- Signposting to other services

Digital Library Plus

As somebody who is eligible for the Home Library Direct service, you may be interested in receiving digital support at home. We can help you get the best out of your own tablet or we can lend you an iPad from the library. Please ask your volunteer or local library to refer you to our Digital Library Plus service.

How to Apply

Return this completed form to your local library. We will arrange for a DBS checked volunteer to visit at a convenient time as soon as a service can be offered to you or apply online at
